COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

The Friends are especially interested in hosting artists who engage with the local community. This can be through lectures, hands-on workshops, or any activity the artist proposes.

Artists are strongly encouraged to give three talks and a hands-on class teaching an art form in-person and/or on Zoom. Applications that include talk or class proposals are given preference.

ARTIST TALKS

Select the types of talks you'll give. Talks may be 45-60 minutes long.

___ 1) Artist talk on art form and cultural background

Title of talk _____

Describe talk in 2-3 sentences _____

___ 2) Speak on three to four artifacts in the museum's permanent collection, describing how the artifacts inspire your work, thoughts on their design and use, how they were made and used, etc.

___ 3) Give a recap talk to share your experiences at the museum and in Sitka and show what you created here.

___ 4) Speak on a subject of your choosing – this may be an artist's reflection on the history of the Sheldon Jackson Museum or Campus, Sheldon Jackson as a collector, Sitka Industrial Training School, Jackson's connection to that boarding school, or subjects such as decolonization, cultural appropriation, etc.

Title of talk _____

Provide a minimum of 5 sentences describing your talk.

You may accompany your talk with a PowerPoint. Please email PowerPoints in PPTX format by May 2.

Note about teaching over Zoom: Some students may need to have materials mailed to them. You will need to have all material packets ready for students two to three weeks in advance.

_____ Provide a photograph of the finished piece that students will create. If you don't have an exact copy of the finished piece, you can provide a similar example from your work.

4-H GROUPS

Artists often offer a short meet and greet with 4-H youth. 4-H groups are small—often only 3 or 4 children. Ages are 5-8, 5-10, or 8-12. Artists share about themselves, where they are from, their art form, and what they are working on. They may take children through the gallery to show five to ten favorite artifacts. Artists may also opt to show children how to do a simple craft activity.

Are you willing to do a meet and greet with 4-H? Yes No

Would you like to do a craft activity with 4-H? Yes No What activity? _____

SITKA PIONEER HOME

Artists often volunteer to visit the Sitka Pioneer Home to meet the elderly residents there. Artists introduce themselves and share some samples of their work. This is not at all required but is an option. Many artists enjoy volunteering so much they return two or more times to the home. Visits take place around 4:30 pm after the workday.

Would you want to volunteer? Yes No

SITKA SCHOOL GROUPS

If in-residence between Sept. and Oct., would you want to talk occasionally w/ school groups? Yes No
